

Joseph Leckie Academy

Humanities Transition Activity

History, Geography and RE

Your task: This is an opportunity for you to explore all three subjects in Humanities. Below there are some cards showing 6 religious and 6 historical places. To begin with, can you match the name, picture and description? Once you have done this, can you locate these places on the world map?

Pyramids Egypt	Stonehenge UK	Colosseum Italy
The Parthenon Greece	The Great Wall of China China	Chichen Itza Mexico

They're over 3,000 years old. They contain tons of chambers that still haven't been (and cannot be) opened.	This structure is over 3000 years old. Its stones come from Wales but scholars are unsure how the stones were moved and only have a vague idea about its purpose.	This is the spot where Caesar walked. An arena where gladiators battled to the death.
This ancient temple to Athena stands as a symbol of the power.	This is made of numerous walls and fortifications. It was originally made by Emperor Qin Shi Huang in 210BC. It was built to keep foreign invaders out.	This is one of the most important Mayan historical structures.

Amritsar - Golden Temple India	Wailing Wall Jerusalem	Lourdes Place of Healing France
Buddha Statue Nepal	River Ganges China	Mecca Saudi Arabia

This is a holy place for Sikhs, who follow the religion Sikhism.	This is a holy place for Jews, who follow the religion Judaism.	This is a holy place for Christians, who following the religion Christianity.
This is a holy place for Buddhists, who follow the religion Buddhism.	This is a holy place for Hindus, who follow the religion Hinduism.	This is a holy place for Muslims, who follow the religion Islam.